

We owe it to kids to constantly do better.
So we do.

Children's Home Society of Florida leads the nation in implementing innovative solutions to address the most pressing challenges facing children, families and communities.

What makes CHS different?

We believe in a world where children realize their full potential. We believe in turning odds into opportunities. And we're leading the way.

CHS Video

